“Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.” —Booker T. Washington, 19th-century politician, author and co-founder of Tuskegee Institute, a famous historically Black college

“You can’t lead the people if you don’t love the people. You can’t save the people if you don’t serve the people.” —Cornel West, philosopher, political activist and social critic

“...when we allow freedom to ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, Black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual: Free at last. Free at last. Thank God almighty, we are free at last.” - Dr. Martin Luther King Jr

“Do the best you can until you know better. Then when you know better, do better.” —Maya Angelou
