Update from last Sunday...

I will be the first to admit that Easter Sunday was not the best time for me to share that the Bishop had chosen me to become the Director of Clergy Services and Secretary of the Annual Conference. However, the timing of this just fell on the wrong day. As stated last week, I will assume my new role on July 1st. Debbie and the boys will be remaining in Big Stone Gap and we are looking for a home to rent. A very special thanks goes out to everyone that has helped to make my time at Trinity UMC so productive. We are truly engaging our community in ministry and I can see God's hand at work in the things we are doing. Please pray for me as I undertake this new ministry role within our Annual Conference.

I still have not been informed who is projected to come to Trinity. The Staff Pastor Parish Relations Committee will meet with the District Superintendent on Monday night and will be instructed on what they can say about the projection. I doubt that anything will be allowed in writing i.e. church bulletin, until after April 22nd. I will do my best to keep everyone informed based upon information shared with me from the Staff Pastor Parish Relations Committee.

On a Personal Note...

The doctors have changed my mom's treatment plan. She will no longer be taking three days of chemotherapy every third week. She will now be taking immunotherapy. She will take one treatment every two weeks for a year, beginning on Monday April 30th. This therapy is designed to allow her own immune system more effectively attack the cancer cells. She will also finish up her radiation therapy at the end of this week. Thank you for all your prayers. Keep praying.
