FROM OUR PASTOR

The Next Few Weeks are VERY Busy for Me...

In the next few weeks, I will be extremely busy with items related to the family (soccer games, graduation, my mom, and packing the house), the church (meals and more meals, getting the office packed, making some final visits), health issues (more tests, more doctors appointments and possibly biopsies) and the extended cabinet (meetings and the traveling associated with them). If you see me wandering around town with a glazed look on my face, simply point me toward the parsonage and tell me to sit down and take a deep breath. Seriously. Please pray for me and my family as all these things come rolling in at the same time.

Annual Conference is Quickly Approaching...

Holston Annual Conference begins on Sunday afternoon June 10th at Lake Junaluska. Alberta Mitchell is the representative from the church. David Goodman is going as a District Delegate at Large. Jacob Goodman is going at the Conference Council on Youth Ministries President. I am going to be leaving as soon after church as possible. I need to get checked in and gather my conference materials. Conference is scheduled to end on Wednesday. If we are lucky, and stay on track, things will be over by noon.

Pre-Conference Briefing is Scheduled...

The Pre-Conference Briefing is scheduled for Sunday June 3rd at 3:00 pm at the Holston View UMC in Weber City. Alberta, David, and Jacob will be attending this meeting.

Annual Conference Special Offerings...

Each year at Annual Conference, two special offerings are taken. One of them is called the “Change for Children” offering. This offering funds grants for Holston-related children’s ministries for children in poverty (50%) and for children in Africa (50%). The other offering is called the “Conference Mission Offering”. This year, that offering has been designated for our South Sudanese Brothers and Sisters in Exile in Uganda, Africa. It is vital that we support these special projects. Between now and Sunday June 3rd, you have an opportunity to make a special gift to one—or both— of these projects. Simply mark your check or envelope for the project you want to support.

Pentecost Sunday is May 20th

This is a heads up. Pentecost Sunday is May 20th. That means it would be great if you could wear something that is RED for that day. Let’s enliven the congregation with the color RED. We will be serving Holy Communion and celebrating the gift of the Holy Spirit to the early church—and to us. I hope that you can be present for this special time of worship.
