Sermon Notes

- Think of a situation when you where harder on yourself than you were the other people involved. What happened? Who was involved? What did you offer your neighbor? What did you offer your neighbor you failed to offer yourself?
- Every tree produces fruit. The tree naturally bears fruit. The tree naturally bears fruit because of the process in the tree interacting with the outward environment. The tree naturally multiplies and fills the earth.
- The Good Tree is known by its Fruit. The Bad Tree is also known by its Fruit.
- The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil bears the fruit of judgement. Judgement tastes like fear of shame, guilt, and blame.
- The Tree of Salvation, the Cross of Christ, bears the Fruit of Love. Love tastes like faith in the hope of God’s mercy and grace. It produces a life of peace, joy, and kindness.
- We are known by our fruit. What fruit do you want people to see in your life?
