Special Music

Reading of Scripture: Matthew 8:

23 Then he got into the boat and his disciples followed him. 24 Suddenly a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. 25 The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown!" 26 He replied, "You of little faith, why are you so afraid?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm. 27 The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!"

The Message: Life's Wake Up Call

Life's Wake up Call

Life has a way of waking us up. The disciples listened to Jesus give them the Be-Attitudes. Undoubtedly they listened to Jesus fulfill the Law of Moses through His Sermon on the Mount. Read the Sermon on the Mount. Let the Holy Spirit put it in your mind. Let the Holy Spirit write it on your heart! (Jeremiah 31: 31-34) For example: You have heard it said in ancient times, "You shall not murder; and who ever murders shall be liable to judgement." But I tell you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgement." "Who could ever live up to Jesus standard?" Remember, life has a way of waking us up.

The disciples watched Jesus interact with people whom culture, religion, and politicians sacrificed on the altar of right and good judgement. He healed the Leper. They listened to the Centurion, their persecutor and enemy, be blessed for having faith unlike that Jesus had experienced in all of Israel. Peter's Mother-in-Law rose from her illness to serve Jesus. She invited those tormented by evil, sickness, and disease to experience the power of Jesus' touch and word? Her house became a sanctuary of mercy, grace, and love.

Imagine the Disciples experience of returning to their fishing boat and boarding it to cross the sea. It must be like returning from Covid-19 closures to the sanctuary to worship! Jesus goes to sleep. He leaves them to their authority and expertise.

Then a storm brews. Like the Centurion the disciple possess authority. They have authority over the boat, sails, oars, and nets. They also have enough Meekness to know that the wind nor the waves of the sea submit to their authority. How about Covid-19!

Think about your authority and expertise:

Are you a Temple Builder? Are you an earthly builder of sacred space? Name your expertise! What offices have you held in the Temple/Church? How do these offices maintain and build the temple? How concerned are you about losing this sacred space?

Are you an advocate for social justice? Describe the ways you have been victimized because of your race, gender, beliefs, social status.... Where are you serving as a protector of victims civil rights. Where have you served in the past? How concerned are you about losing your civil rights?

Are you a Peacekeeper? Describe the lawlessness you see? What do you see happening to morality? Describe what it means to say, "Freedom isn't free." How concerned are you about losing your freedom.

Temple Builders, Advocates of Social Justice, and Peacekeepers do you have the authority to stop Covid 19? Do you have the expertise to create a cure? What would it take for the Temple Builders, Advocates of Social Justice, and Peace Keepers to listen to one another. If we heard one another could we respect one another. When shall we see that we are in this boat together?

Look around! The sanctuary is still here! The issue is not this sanctuary. The issue is in our hearts and minds. There is a scene in the movie The Shack. Mac is in Jesus' fishing boat. The lake on which the boat floats is the very place Mac saved his son from drowning. While he was saving his son, someone "poor in spirit" abducted and killed Mac's youngest daughter.

The bright sunny day and calm lake turned into a Hellish storm. The fishing boat was being torn apart. The boat was being swallowed by inky black water. Jesus heard Mac's cries. Jesus said, Mac, this is not real. This is happening inside you. Do you feel as if you are being swallowed by black inky darkness?

Life's storms have a way of waking us up. Jesus is with us. Where two or more gather in his name he is among them. Covid 19 is real! Declining attendance is real! The Back Pack Ministry is Real. Prejudice is real! The Anger in the Church and Nation is real.

Jesus says, anger is the same as murder! Mac saved his son! Mac's anger was destroying their relationship. Mac's daughter was dead. Anger is liable to judgement. The Hell -Storm Mac faced was in him. It was consuming his heart and mind.

We are in a storm unlike any I have seen in my life. Jesus is sleeping in our boat. His love is patient. His love does not insist on its way. Will you wake him up. The Holy Spirit is the Wind that stills the storm raging in you.

The Disciples surrender their authority and expertise. They learn a lesson of being Meek and inheriting the earth. They wake Jesus. Like the Leper and the Centurion the storm has made straight their way to the Lord. Did you hear me? Friends, "little faith" is enough to make the mighty meek. Fear has a way of waking us up to discover the storm is in our heart-soul-mind. Then and only then do we understand that the suffering we experience in the world is created by fearful, faithless humanity.

The disciples learned that the wind and the waves obey Jesus' touch and word. They believe in Jesus but do not have faith to trust his authority!

The Son of man will suffer, die, and on the third day rise again before the disciples rise like Peter's mother-in-law to serve Jesus.

Are we ready to serve Jesus like Peter's Mother- In- Law? Will we serve mercy that creates a community of grace who reveals God's Love through patience, kindness, long-suffering...

Amen
